WHAT'S COMING BACK?

Indiana returns 18 starters - nine on defense, eight on offense and one on special teams. The 18 returners are tied for the third-highest total in the county.

IU leads all power five conferences with 130 career starts on the offensive line, which is third nationally behind Appalachian State and UTSA.

The Hoosiers lose six starters from 2013, including three on offense, two on defense and one on special teams.

TRIO JOINS STAFF

Brian Knorr, Larry McDaniel

and Noah Joseph joined the Indiana coaching staff in the offseason. Knorr is the program's new defensive coordinator and he coaches the defensive ends and outside linebackers.

He spent the previous three seasons as defensive coordinator at Wake Forest University. Knorr, the former head coach at Ohio University (2001-04), has 23 years of coaching experience at the Air Force Academy (1992-94, 2005-07), Ohio (1995-2004) and Wake Forest (2008-13).

McDaniel oversees the IU defensive line. He worked in the same capacity at Bowling Green State University from 2011-13.

A four-year starter (1989-92) at nose guard and a senior captain with the Hoosiers, McDaniel graduated in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in business management.

Joseph leads the safeties and is the defensive recruiting coordinator. He spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons as safeties coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of North Texas.

North Texas went 9-4 in 2013 with a victory in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. The Mean Green's nine wins tied for the second-most in program history.

2011-: Head Coach

- One of the most innovative and prolific offensive minds in the country, Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010.

- The Hoosiers improved their win total in each of Wilson's three years and posted the most wins in back-to-back Big Ten seasons (2012-13) since 2006-07.

- Twelve IU standouts have either moved on to the NFL or received camp invites, including wide receiver Cody Latimer, who was selected 56th overall by the Denver Broncos in the 2014 NFL Draft.

- In addition to Latimer, tight end Ted Bolser was taken in the seventh round by the Washington Redskins. Running back Stephen Houston (New England) and wide receiver Kofi Hughes (Houston) signed undrafted free agent deals.

- In Wilson's three years, the offense has set 22 school records, including points, total yardage and passing yardage in a single season.

- The 2013 Hoosiers were one of six teams (Baylor, Colorado State, Florida State, Marshall and Oregon) nationally to rank in the top 30 in scoring, total, passing and rushing offense and one of three programs (Baylor and Florida State) to average over 300 passing yards and 200 rushing yards.

- One season after boasting nine All-Big Ten honorees, Indiana produced seven more in 2013. The 16 honorees mark the most for IU in a two-year span since 18 combined in 2000 (6) and 2001 (12).

- The Hoosiers nine All-Big Ten players and six on offense, including three along the offensive line, were the program's most since 2001.

- Wilson and his staff assembled the highest-rated recruiting classes in school history over the past two seasons. Both classes ranked in the top 40 nationally, which is also a program first.

- The hard work on the recruiting trail has paid off, as eight Indiana freshmen earned All-Big Ten freshman recognition last year, including All-America selections Jacob Bailey (offensive lineman), Ralph Green III (defensive tackle) and T.J. Simmons (linebacker).

- Offensive linemen Jason Spriggs and Dan Feeney earned freshman All-America honors in 2012. Wilson has coached five freshman All-Americans and 16 freshman All-Big Ten honorees.

- Replogle (2012) and safety Mark Murphy (2013) became the eighth and ninth IU players to collect Academic All-America honors.

- For the second time in Wilson's tenure, the program set a school record with 26 Academic All-Big Ten recipients in 2013. Along with 24 honorees in 2011 and 22 in 2012, Indiana set a three-year school mark with 72 award winners in the Wilson Era.

- Spent the 2002-10 seasons at the University of Oklahoma. He served as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach (2002-05) and offensive coordinator and tight ends and fullbacks coach (2006-10).

- Led some of the most productive offenses in the history of college football, coached in 10 consecutive bowl games and made seven BCS bowl appearances, including three national championship games (2003, '04, '08).

HEAD COACH KEVIN WILSON

• OU played in seven Big 12 Title games in Wilson's nine years, going 6-1 in those appearances. His offenses were vital to accumulating an overall record of 99-24 (.805) during his time in Norman, including seven 10-win seasons.

• Over Wilson's time at Oklahoma, 26 offensive players were drafted in to the NFL, including seven first-round selections, with three going among the first 10 picks and two in the top five.

• Served as position coach for three All-Americans, an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown), a Mackey Award finalist (Jermaine Gresham) and a two-time Rimington Trophy finalist (Vince Carter).

• As position coach, Wilson tutored three first-round draft picks (Jermaine Gresham, TE - 2010, Davin Joseph, OL - 2006 and Jammal Brown, OL - 2005), a second-round pick (Chris Chester, OL - 2005), a fifth-round pick (Brody Eldridge, TE - 2010), two sixth-round picks (James Hanna, TE - 2012; Wes Sims, OL - 2004) and six free agents at Oklahoma.

• Twice a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award - awarded to the nation's top assistant coach, Wilson won the award in 2008.

• In 2010, the Sooners earned a 48-20 victory over Connecticut in the Fiesta Bowl and also claimed the seventh Big 12 championship in school history.

• During the 2010 campaign, running back DeMarco Murray set the school record for career touchdowns and also broke the OU mark for career all-purpose yards.

• Guided wide receiver Ryan Broyles to eight Sooner receiving records, including career marks for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns. Broyles led the nation with 131 receptions in 2010.

• His 2008 offense shattered NCAA records by scoring 60-or-more points in five straight games and 716 total points for the entire season to average more than 51 points per contest.

• The 2008 team played in the BCS National Championship Game behind Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Sam Bradford.

• In 2008, Bradford passed for 4,720 yards and 50 touchdowns, Chris Brown and DeMarco Murray both rushed for over 1,000 yards, Jaquain Iglesias caught 74 balls for 1,150 yards and Jermaine Gresham added 66 catches for 950 yards.

• Bradford ranked No. 1 nationally in passing efficiency as a freshman in 2007 and again in 2008, as he threw for more touchdowns (86) in two seasons than anyone in NCAA history.

• In the 2010 NFL Draft, Bradford was selected with the No. 1 overall pick by the St. Louis Rams. He captured the 2010 Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honor.

• Three of Wilson's tight ends, Jermaine Gresham, Brody Eldridge and Joe Jon Finley, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2007.

- His offenses produced outstanding running backs, including Travis Prentice and Indiana running backs coach Deland McCullough. Wilson also coached all-conference tight end and IU assistant James Patton.

- Prentice became the NCAA's all-time leading scorer and the fifth-most prolific rusher in NCAA history, breaking McCullough's school records in the process.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

FRED GLASS - Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie appointed Fred Glass Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics effective January 1, 2009, after one of the most tumultuous decades in the history of IU Athletics. The fifth athletic director in eight years, Glass was hired to heal and lead a department that had been rocked by the firing of a legendary basketball coach, the untimely death of a beloved football coach, and an infamous major NCAA infractions case that placed the entire department on probation. Since assuming this role, Glass has worked tirelessly to return IU to its rightful place as one of the premier athletics departments in the country.

At the press conference announcing his appointment, Glass set out the four priorities that have been the hallmark of his tenure as athletic director. They are the rules he expects all IU student-athletes to follow: 1) achieve academically and graduate student-athletes; 2) excel athletically and win championships; and 3) excel academically and win championships; and 4) integrate athletics into the rest of the University. Building on these priorities and working with student-athletes, coaches, faculty and others, Glass subsequently unveiled a creed that represents Indiana University Athletics' core values, mission statement, and strategic plan all rolled into one, The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. It is the standard by which all IU student-athletes will be judged, and it is the standard by which all IU coaches, faculty and staff will be judged. It is the standard by which all IU student-athletes will be judged, and it is the standard by which all IU coaches, faculty and staff will be judged. It is the standard by which all IU student-athletes will be judged, and it is the standard by which all IU coaches, faculty and staff will be judged.

Now in just his sixth year as athletic director, Glass' dynamic and passionate leadership has been the driving force behind his alma mater's return to athletic success consistent with these priorities and values. On the field since Glass' arrival, 15 IU teams and 81 individuals have won conference championships, 30 student-athletes have been named Big Ten Player of the Year in their respective sports, eleven coaches have been named conference coach of the year, three coaches have been named national coach of the year, and the department has produced a national team championship, as well as eight NCAA individual championships.

In 2014, Glass unveiled the Indiana University Student-Athlete Bill of Rights, a groundbreaking, 10-point document that sets forth the University's commitment to student-athletes during their time at IU and beyond. A first-of-its-kind document in intercollegiate athletics, the Student-Athlete Bill of Rights expands and describes the University's commitments to its student-athletes in all phases of student-athlete well-being and development. It comprehensively addresses subjects as wide ranging as post-eligibility degree support; scholarship commitment; academic, athletic, leadership and lifelinks development; and career assistance; safety and medical care; meals and nutritional guidance; ensuring a culture of trust and respect; and collective student-athlete involvement within the athletics department. Under the Student-Athlete Bill of Rights, IU student-athletes will also have access to cutting edge technology, including every student-athlete being supplied an iPad, along with additional benefits such as official IU Athletics blazers and internal internship opportunities.

In 2013-14, for the first time in over 15 years IU had four different teams win conference titles in the same academic year (Baseball, Men's Soccer, Water Polo, Men's Cross Country). Five student-athletes were named Conference Athlete of the Year in their respective sports, one coach was national coach of the year, four coaches were named Conference Coach of the Year, 15 teams qualified for postseason play, and IU won 14 individual Big Ten titles. The Summer Brooklyn Sndgrass became just the second woman in IU Swimming history to win an individual NCAA championship. In team competition, Rowing qualified for NAACAs for the first time in program history and coach Steve Peterson was named National Coach of the Year. Baseball won the Big Ten regular season and tournament championships and became the first Big Ten school ever to be named a National Seed for the NCAA Tournament. Water Polo won their conference championship and set a school record for wins in a season. Women's Soccer qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007 and set an IU record for wins in a season. Men's Cross Country won the Big Ten Championship for the first time since 1980. Women's Basketball tied the record for most wins in a season in program history, and Men's Soccer won the Big Ten Tournament championship.

Glass has also made key coaching hires in his short tenure. In the fall of 2009, Glass hired men's soccer coach Todd Yeagley who went on to win the Big Ten championship and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in his first season at Indiana in 2010 and later the NCAA Championship National Coach of the Year honors in 2012. In December of 2010, Glass hired highly respected and record setting offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson from Oklahoma as Indiana's new head football coach. In 2008, Wilson won the prestigious Broyles Award for the nation's top assistant coach. In 2012, Glass hired one of the winnigest women's basketball coaches in history, Curt Miller, from Bowling Green. In his last eight years at Bowling Green, Miller's teams won the regular season or tournament championship or both every year, and Miller was named MAC Coach of the Year six times. This past season, Miller's team matched the school record for wins in a season, earned the school's first national ranking since 1989, and went to the postseason for the first time since 2009. In 2013, Glass hired Amy Barbary, one of the most respected young soccer coaches in the country to helm the women's soccer program and in her first season, the team went to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2007 and set a school record for wins in a season. Glass also hired U.S. Olympic diving coach Drew Johansen to lead Indiana's celebrated diving program, and he was named Big Ten Diving Coach of the Year in his first season.

In Glass' tenure, Indiana student-athletes have excelled in the classroom as well as on the playing field. In 2013-14, IU had 229 student-athletes earn Academic All-Big Ten distinction, including a school record 94 full student-athletes earning that honor. A program record, 26 football players were named Academic All-Big Ten. Along with 24 honorees in 2011 and 22 in 2012, the Hoosiers set a three-year school mark with 72 award winners under head coach Kevin Wilson. Fifteen teams earned a perfect 1.000 APR score for the 2012-13 school year. The NCAA also recognized the men's basketball, men's cross country, men's golf, men's soccer, men's outdoor track and field and women's tennis with an APR Public Recognition Award, which is given to high-performing teams that posted multiple APRs in the top 10 percent of all teams in their particular sports. The academic success of these teams is fortunately very typical of all IU sports which routinely exceed the NCAA 925 standard by a very large margin.

To help generate the financial resources necessary to pursue the University's top priorities, Glass has eliminated six of the eight senior administrative staff positions he inherited leaving up nearly two million dollars; improved private fundraising, including securing the largest gift in the history of IU Athletics: $40 million from Cindy Simon-Skjold for the upcoming renovation of Assembly Hall; renegotiated a lucrative 10-year multimedia rights agreement with Learfield Sports; and negotiated a $3 million agreement to play Penn State at FedEx Field, among other innovative revenue generating initiatives. As a result of Glass's relentless focus on improving the game day football experience in and around Memorial Stadium, football attendance in Glass' first year as AD increased by 32%, the third largest one year percentage increase in average attendance in the country that year and the highest IU attendance since 1992. These attendance gains have been maintained and, in fact, a new attendance record was set in 2013. Indiana led the Big Ten in increased football attendance in 2012. Again focusing on preserving and improving the game atmosphere in Assembly Hall, in his first year Glass helped to double men's basketball student ticket sales to the most in the conference, propelling Indiana to the 11th highest total attendance in the country and second highest in the conference. In 2013-2014, men's basketball attendance increased again as IU Athletics sold more student-season tickets (15,600) than any other program in the country and overall attendance ranked first in the Big Ten and sixth nationally.

With the help of these additional resources, Glass has furthered the department's priorities by adding personnel to make IU's compliance staff the second largest in the conference; adding academic advisors to move IU from ninth to third in the conference in student-athlete to academic advisor ratio; building a state of the art, 25,800 square foot, $3 million academic center moving IU from the smallest to the fourth largest (and most modern) academic center in the conference; opening a 25,000 square foot strength and conditioning center, upon completion the largest facility of its kind in the Big Ten - (replacing a facility that ranked last in the conference); opening Cook Hall, the finest basketball development facility and program shrine in the country, and otherwise improving the facilities of all 24 of IU's sports programs. Bart Kaufman, IU's first and only Men's Football Coach, was named IU's first head coach in the budget prior to the 2013 season and allowed the baseball program to host the first NCAA Regional in school history. Glass successfully guided IU Athletics off of NCAA probation in November, 2011.

To ensure that the department meets the promise of The Spirit of Indiana, Glass established The Indiana University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Excellence Academy. The Excellence Academy integrates athletic department and university resources to assess, monitor and ensure the department's progress toward specific goals. The Academy fully integrates the athletic department's academic support and life skills development programs, innovative strength and conditioning regimens, advanced sports medicine and athletic training services, expert sports psychology staff, and one of the very few full-time sports nutritionists in intercollegiate athletics, along with cutting-edge resources from other parts of the university. The Excellence Academy is emerging as one of the nation's most innovative and comprehensive student-athlete development centers in the country.

In 2011, Glass established the Spirit of Indiana Showcase, an annual awards gala celebrating the top athletic and academic achievements of IU student-athletes over the last year. Glass also announced the creation of The Spirit of Indiana Director's Award that honors the senior male and female student-athletes who, on the whole, best personify the tenets of The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. Under his leadership, the Department of Indiana Athletics has been financially self-supporting. Each year of his tenure the Athletic Department has been financially self-sufficient without any special subsidy from the university, tax dollars, or student fees. In fact, the Athletic Department actually pays over $12 million to the University in tuition, room and board, books, and fees for its scholarship student-athletes.

Glass loves supporting IU's student-athletes and often attends competitions and practices, often traveling on road trips with the teams. Glass enjoys being present in the lives of IU student-athletes, whether it's wearing a kilt at a field hockey game as a result of a challenge with players, sitting on the bench with the volleyball and softball teams, riding the bus with the baseball team, or jumping in the pool with the women's swimming and diving team upon winning their third straight Big Ten title. He also enjoys interacting with IU fans and is a fixture at pregame tailgate gatherings and cheering with the fans in the stands.

As a university vice president, he often attends academic events on campus, including the monthly meetings of the President's Cabinet of which he is a member. Glass has established an athletics sustainability initiative with the goal of becoming "the greenest athletic department in the Big Ten." IU Athletics finished first among Big Ten schools in two categories (Greenhouse Gas and Recycling) in the EPA Gamewatchdog Initiative. He served as co-chair of Indiana University's 2010 and 2011 United Way campaigns, during which the Department of Athletics participation rate soared from 9% to 80%. In the spring of 2011, Glass had his head shaved to stand in solidarity with kids fighting cancer at a St. Baldrick's event in Indianapolis, raising over $20,000 for the cause.

In May 2012, Glass received the Distinguished Alumni Award from IU's Robert H. McKinney School of Law. In April 2010, Glass was presented the Trevor R. Brown Award by the students of the Indiana Daily Student and the Athletics for his contributions to the experiences of student journalists. Among his other honors and awards, Glass received the Brebeuf Jesuit President's Medal in 2007; The St. Thomas More Society Man for All Seasons Award in 2006; the 2006 Spirit of Service Community Service Award from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis; the 2005 Charles L. Whistler Award from The Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee; the 2004 Fred McCasland Outstanding Alumnus Award (Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School); and the National Catholic Education Association Distinguished Graduate Award (St. Thomas Aquinas School in Indianapolis) in 2003.

Glass is a double graduate of Indiana University and had been a well known Indianapolis lawyer and civic leader before being named a vice president and the director of intercollegiate athletics at his alma mater. Born in Indianapolis, Glass earned bachelor's and law degrees from IU in 1981 and 1984, respectively.

Glass played a central role in several major sports-related initiatives in Indianapolis, including negotiating the 30-year agreement to keep the Colts in Indianapolis, developing Lucas Oil Stadium and an expanded Indiana Convention Center, and helping to negotiate the arrangement to regularly bring Final Four and other major NCAA events to the city. Formerly a partner in the law firm of Baker & Daniels, Glass served as chairman of the firm's management committee and as the volunteer president of the city's Capital Improvement Board. Glass also has served as Chief of Staff to then Governor Evan Bayh, Chairman of then Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson's transition team, and in a number of other civic, legal, and sports related positions.

Glass also served as president of the City of Indianapolis' 2011 Super Bowl Bid Committee, which although not successful for that year, has been credited with successfully laying the groundwork for the city's successful bid for 2012. At the time of Glass's appointment, Tony Dungy, former head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, said, "I worked very closely with Fred on the Super Bowl effort, and I was very impressed with his vision, leadership and judgment. Indiana University has made an outstanding choice."

Upon his appointment of Glass, Indiana University President Michael McRobbie said, "In all of our major undertakings, Fred demonstrated a remarkable talent for leadership, for mastering the details of complex challenges, for diplomacy, and for consensus building. He has a well-earned reputation as someone who can get the big things done. He is exactly the person we need to take on the challenges our Athletics Department will encounter in the next decade."

Glass and his wife, Barbara, who Fred met at an IU football game and graduated from IU in 1980, are the parents of four children and one grandchild. They are: Katie, 28, a 2008 IU Kelley School graduate and her husband Tom Askey, also a 2008 Kelley School graduate, and their daughter, Joe, 26, a 2008 Kelley School graduate. Fred and Barbara are also members of the IU McKinney School of Law, Connor, 22 a 2014 IU School of Journalism graduate; and George, 19 (IU '17). Fred, Barbara, Katie, Tom, and Connor are life members of the IU Alumni Association.

THE OLD BRASS SPITTOON

The Old Brass Spittoon has been awarded to the winner of the Indiana-Michigan State football game since the trophy's inception in 1950.

The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at Michigan State and was quickly accepted by the Indiana Student Senate.

The spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 200 years old. Legend holds that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded (IU - 1820, MSU - 1855).

Indiana and Michigan State have faced each other since 1922 and the trophy became a part of the series 28 years after the first meeting.

The Hoosiers won the Old Brass Spittoon with a 46-21 victory in 2006.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

The symbol of football supremacy between Indiana and Purdue, the Old Oaken Bucket, has become one of the nation's most recognized and famed trophies in its 89 years of spirited rivalry.

Both institutions had been meeting on the football field since 1891 when the Indiana and Purdue Alumni Clubs of Chicago held a joint meeting in 1925 to "discuss the possibility of undertaking a worthy joint enterprise on behalf of the two schools." Dr. Clarence Jones proposed the creation of a traditional football trophy to go to the winner of the annual clash. Dr. Jones and Russel Gray of Purdue were appointed to recommend a suitable trophy by J. Frank Lindsey, (Indiana, class of 1913), who was elected chairman of the joint committee.

At a later meeting they recommended "an old oaken bucket as the most typical Hoosier form of trophy, that the bucket should be taken from some well in Indiana, and that a chain to be made of bronze block 'I' and 'P' letters should be provided for the bucket. The school winning the traditional football game each year should have possession of the 'Old Oaken Bucket' until the next game and should attach the block letter representing the winning school to the bail with the score engraved on the latter link."

Fritz Ernst of Purdue and Indiana's Wiley J. Huddle were given the task of finding the bucket. They located it on the old Bruner Farm between Kent and Hanover in southern Indiana. The region had been settled by the Bruner family in the 1840s, making today's bucket around 175 years of age.

Excellent repair work put the bucket, moss and mold-covered with some staves showing signs of decay, into good shape for its initial appearance, which ended in a 0-0 tie in 1925 in Bloomington.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The rivalry between Indiana and Purdue continues with the 2014-15 Governor's Cup. The overall winner of the contest is awarded a trophy at the end of the season. The Hoosiers lead the all-sports competition between the two schools, 6-2-2. Each sport can earn one point toward the overall championship. A total of 20 points can be won. The winner of regular season head-to-head competition earns the point for its institution. Should the teams split or tie in regular season competition the point is split between the two institutions. If the two institutions do not compete in a head-to-head regular season competition, the team that places higher at the Big Ten Championships will be awarded the point.

1968 ROSE BOWL

JANUARY 1, 1968 • PASADENA, CALIF.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 14 INDIANA 3

On Nov. 25, 1967, Indiana University improved its record to 9-1 with a 19-14 upset win over Purdue in the regular-season finale. The win clinched the Big Ten title and secured the Hoosiers' initial postseason bid - a trip to the Rose Bowl and a tilt against top-ranked and O.J. Simpson-led Southern California. Remarkably, just one season earlier in 1966, Indiana had finished the season with a 1-8-1 record.

IU's only Rose Bowl appearance would not be an easy task for the Hoosiers. However, 102,946 fans watched intently as Indiana would give the Trojans everything they could handle for four quarters.

USC tallied first when All-America running back Simpson (25-128-2TDs rushing) scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap an 84-yard scoring drive. Indiana would answer just one quarter later. The Hoosiers had a first-and-goal inside the Southern California 10-yard line but could not score a touchdown. However, Indiana kicker David Kornowa did connect on a 27-yard field goal attempt that pulled the Hoosiers to within 7-3, a lead that USC would take into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Trojans put together their final scoring drive of the day. This time it was a 45-yard drive capped by an eight-yard touchdown run by Simpson. The "Cardiac Kids," a nickname that IU had been given because of several exciting comebacks throughout the 1967 campaign, would threaten one more time but could not close the gap. IU moved to the USC 37-yard line midway through the fourth stanza but failed on two chances to gain a first down with just inches to go.

1979 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 21, 1979 • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

INDIANA 38 BRIGHAM YOUNG 37

Many people described it as the most exciting game of the 1979 bowl season. The 1979 Holiday Bowl featured Indiana and Brigham Young. The two squads would combine to score 75 total points in addition to tallying 52 first downs and 874 yards of total offense. However, after eight lead changes, Indiana stood victorious, 38-37, over the previously unbeaten Cougars.

Having finished the 1979 regular season with a 7-4 record, Indiana looked to gain its initial bowl victory when it faced off against the Cougars.

It was a tight battle throughout as Brigham Young quarterback Marc Wilson completed 28-of-43 passes for 380 yards and 2 TDs. Throughout the game, he showed many reasons why he led the nation in passing and total offense during the regular season. However, IU found a way to answer every BYU score.

The Cougars would take a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter, but IU tallied right back when running back Mike Harkrader (24-71-1TD rushing) scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 28-24 lead. Indiana kicker Kevin Kellogg would then connect on a 26-yard field goal to increase the IU lead to 31-24. However, a 29-yard field goal by BYU and a 15-yard touchdown strike from Wilson to fullback Eric Lane, put the Cougars in front, 34-31, at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter did not lack for theatrics. BYU would score the quarter's first points to increase its lead to 37-31. However, Indiana's Tim Wilbur countered with a 62-yard punt return to tie the game at 37-37. Kellogg would add the extra point to give IU a one-point advantage with 6:53 remaining in the contest. Brigham Young had the opportunity to win the contest on a field goal attempt with just 11 seconds remaining. However, a 27-yard effort by Cougar kicker Brent Johnson failed, and IU held on for the thrilling 38-37 victory.

1986 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1986 • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

FLORIDA STATE 27 INDIANA 13

Although he finished with an 0-11 record during his first campaign at Indiana in 1984, it would take Bill Mallory just three seasons to lead the Hoosiers to their first bowl appearance under his direction. Indiana finished with a 6-5 regular-season record in 1986 and capped its season by playing a talented Florida State team in the 1986 All-American Bowl on New Year's Eve in Birmingham, Ala.

Despite losing 27-13, the Hoosiers would go on to make bowl appearances following four of the next five seasons.

Florida State used four time-consuming scoring drives that averaged 66 yards each to capture the 10th annual All-American Bowl. IU penetrated inside the Seminole 35-yard line four times without a score.

Indiana would tally first as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the Hoosiers a 3-0 lead. However, Florida State running back Sammie Smith (25-205-2TDs) scored on runs of four and nine yards in the first and second quarters, respectively, to give the Seminoles a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Seminoles would score another touchdown during the third quarter that would essentially clinch the victory. IU did close the gap to within 20-13 in the fourth quarter, but FSU iced the game with a 68-yard scoring drive.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who was playing in his first bowl game, finished with 127 rushing yards on 28 carries and quarterback Dave Kramme threw for 168 yards. IU dominated the time of possession and totaled more first downs (23-20) and total yards (383-342) than Florida State. However, the Seminoles rushed for 288 yards and were forced into third-down situations on just three occasions during the entire game.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 PEACH BOWL

JANUARY 2, 1988 • ATLANTA, GA.

TENNESSEE 27 INDIANA 22

Tennessee drove 40 yards in nine plays and scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Reggie Cobb with just 1:52 remaining in the game to clinch a 27-22 victory over Indiana in the 20th Peach Bowl. The game, which was played on Jan. 2, 1988, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, was witnessed by 58,737 fans. Despite the disappointing loss, IU finished the season with an 8-4 record, which included wins over Michigan and Ohio State.

The Volunteers jumped to a quick 21-3 second-quarter lead. That same stanza, UT blocked an Indiana punt on the IU 9-yard line that gave the Volunteers an opportunity to put the game out of reach. However, IU forced a fumble and drove 91 yards for a touchdown, a 43-yard pass play from quarterback Dave Schnell (33-18-218-1TD-2INTs) to wide receiver Ernie Jones (7-150-1TD). The score narrowed IU's deficit to 21-10 prior to halftime.

The lone score of the third period was a 12-yard run by running back Anthony Thompson (18-67-1TD) that moved Indiana to within 21-16, however, the two-point conversion failed. In the fourth quarter, Indiana scored on a fake field goal attempt when tight end Tim Jorden ran 12 yards for a score that gave IU a one-point lead, 22-21. The two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Tennessee, which had come from behind on four other occasions during the 1987 campaign would turn the trick again as Cobb scored his second touchdown of the game, this one a 9-yard run, to give Tennessee the 27-22 victory.

Tennessee gained 474 yards of total offense, including 146 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Cobb, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. However, Jones was just as impressive, as he finished with 246 all-purpose yards (150 receiving, 15 rushing, 81 kickoff returns). Indiana linebacker Van Waiters was recognized as the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

INDIANA 34 SOUTH CAROLINA 10

After finishing the regular season with a 7-3-1 record and a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, Indiana earned a postseason berth for the third consecutive year and played South Carolina in the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Hoosiers dominated the game and cruised to a 34-10 victory before 39,210 fans.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson (26-140-2TDs) began the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, and the Hoosiers would add 10 more second-quarter points to take a 17-0 halftime lead. The Gamecocks would close the gap to 17-7 in the third quarter when they scored on a 34-yard return of a blocked punt. The two teams would then trade third-quarter field goals and the fourth quarter began with Indiana leading, 20-10.

Although Indiana dominated throughout, the game-breaking play occurred on the first snap of the fourth quarter when Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell (31-16-378-2TDs-1INT) hooked up with wide receiver Rob Turner (5-182-1TD) on an 88-yard touchdown pass that upped IU's lead to 27-10. Thompson would cap the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run later that quarter that earned him a tie for the Big Ten single-season touchdown record with 26 scores.

Indiana set a Liberty Bowl record with 575 yards of total offense. South Carolina, on the other hand, could muster only 153 total yards, including just 23 yards rushing. The IU defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble to go along with six quarterback sacks.

Schnell was the game's Most Valuable Player, and wide receiver Tony Buford caught three passes for 100 yards.

1990 PEACH BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1990 • ATLANTA, GA.

INDIANA 23

Indiana finished with a 6-4-1 regular-season record in 1990, a mark good enough to earn the Hoosiers a berth in the Peach Bowl for a date with the Auburn Tigers. The game, which was played at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 30, 1990, was one of the best games played during the 1990 bowl season.

Auburn led Indiana 17-10 at half-time and increased its lead to 20-10 on a 43-yard field goal during the third quarter, but the Hoosiers returned the favor as quarterback Trent Green scored on touchdown runs of two and 11 yards to give IU a 23-20 lead.

However, Auburn quarterback Stan White (48-31-351-1TD passing and 2 TD runs) would direct the Tigers on a 13-play, 72-yard, 1:40-minute, scoring drive. He capped the drive himself when he scored on a 1-yard run with just 39 seconds remaining in the game. The touchdown gave Auburn a 27-23 victory.

Auburn dominated the game statistically, as the Tigers tallied 440 total yards to IU's 220. However, Indiana utilized a solid kicking game to keep the game close. Trent Green tied a Peach Bowl record with his three rushing touchdowns while running back Vaughn Dunbar (21-81) and free safety Mike Dumas (14 tackles, 4 passes broken up) earned offensive and defensive Most Valuable Player honors, respectively.

BOWL HISTORY

1991 COPPER BOWL

INDIANA 24 BAYLOR 0

In one of the most impressive performances by any team during the 1991 bowl season, Indiana dominated a highly-regarded Baylor team in the Copper Bowl, 24-0.

Indiana wasted little time getting started as it jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead and was never threatened on its way to winning its second bowl game in four years.

Indiana quarterback Trent Green (21-11-165-0-0 passing, 2 rushing touchdowns) broke the Hoosiers into the scoring column when he tallied a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. IU would increase its lead one quarter later when kicker Scott Bonnell connected on a 27-yard field goal attempt and running back Vaughn Dunbar (28-106-1TD rushing) scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 17-0 halftime advantage.

IU's only scary moment came in the third quarter when Baylor reached Indiana's 2-yard line. However, a muffed handoff resulted in a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by free safety Damon Watts and the game was, for all intents and purposes, over.

Dunbar won game Most Valuable Player honors on offense and line-backer Mark Hagen (11 tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, and 1 pass broken up) was the game's defensive MVP.

2007 INSIGHT BOWL DECEMBER 31, 2007 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE 49 INDIANA 33

Indiana capped off an emotional season in achieving late head coach Terry Hoepfner's dream of "Playing 13," as the Hoosiers returned to a postseason bowl for the first time in 14 years at the 2007 Insight Bowl.

Oklahoma State's no-huddle offense took a strong first half lead, and it was too much for a spirited Hoosier squad to overcome in a 49-33 defeat. The Hoosiers rallied from a 35-10 half-time deficit to get within two scores on two separate occasions in the second half.

Kellen Lewis threw for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the loss, tying IU great Antwaan Randle El for first place on the all-time list with 42 TD passes in his career. The sophomore quarterback also ran for 83 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown on the ground.

The Hoosiers drove 52 yards on 11 plays on their opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on Austin Starr's 43-yard field goal at the 10:41 mark of the opening quarter. But OSU scored the next 28 points of the game before the Hoosiers made it 28-10 on a Marcus Thigpen 4-yard TD grab. Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson tacked on a 1-yard run just before the half to give OSU a 25-point lead at the break.

IU struck with the first points of the second half on a Lewis 1-yard run that followed a 4th-and-8 conversion on a fake field goal pass from Lewis to Starr. The Cowboys rebutted with a TD of their own, and 16 fourth quarter points by the Hoosiers proved to not be enough to overcome the early deficit.

As IU's track and field coach, Hayes led the Hoosiers to eight Big Ten championships and 70 Big Ten team and individual titles in indoor and outdoor track and field. Indiana also won the 1932 NCAA outdoor track and field championships. Indiana's world-class outdoor track, and the NCAA trophy for the team champion in cross country, are both named in his honor.

ALVIN N. (BO) MCMILLIN • 1934-1947*CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 63-48-11*BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 34-34-6

One of Indiana's most successful coaches, Bo McMillin holds the honor of being the only coach to ever lead the Hoosiers to an outright Big Ten Championship. In 1945, he led IU to its only unbeaten record (9-0-1) and garnered Man of the Year and Coach of the Year honors by the Football Writers Association and the Football Coaches Association. While at Indiana, McMillin guided IU to 10 seasons of 500 or better, including a stretch of six consecutive years. His 34-34-6 Big Ten mark is the best winning percentage in Big Ten play for an Indiana coach, as is his overall winning percentage (.562).

CLYDE SMITH • 1948-1951*CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27-1*BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 4-19

After coaching under legendary Frank Leahy at Notre Dame, Bernie Crimmings took over at the Hoosier helm in 1952. In five seasons, Crimmings led the team to a 13-32 record. A native of Louisville, Crimmings was a three-sport star for St. Xavier High School before starring for the Fighting Irish for four seasons at right halfback, fullback and guard. He became the first man in Notre Dame's rich football history to win major awards at three different positions.

BOB HICKS • 1957

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 0-6

Bob Hicks served as Indiana's interim head coach for one season prior to becoming its head line coach when Phil Dickens assumed the head coach's role. Hicks served as head coach for a season as Dickens sat out for alleged recruiting violations. A 1948 graduate of Tennessee, Hicks played on the line for UT. After five years coaching at the high school level, he received his first opportunity to coach as a member of Dickens' staff at Wyoming, where he helped build highly competitive lines for the Cowboys' powerhouse clubs. Hicks would coach on the IU staff for 16 years.

PHIL DICKENS • 1958-1964

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27-2

Phil Dickens, widely recognized as one of Tennessee's all-time greatest tailbacks, tallied an 89-67-11 record during his 16-year coaching career at Wofford, Wyoming and Indiana. He became IU's head coach after leading Wyoming to a Skyline championship and an undefeated season in 1956. At Indiana, Dickens accumulated a 20-41-2 record. His best record came in 1958 (3-2-1), when he guided the Hoosiers to a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten. Dickens earned Midwest Coach of the Year honors that season and finished third in national voting. As a player at Tennessee he was an unanimous All-SEC pick in 1936 and was selected as the Volunteers' outstanding athlete during each of his four years at the school.

JOHN PONT • 1965-1972

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 21-36-1

John Pont holds the distinction of being the only coach to ever guide Indiana to a Rose Bowl appearance. He accomplished that feat in 1967, when he led the Hoosiers to a 9-2 record, a Big Ten co-championship and an appearance in the Rose Bowl against eventual national champion Southern California. Perhaps more remarkable than the Hoosiers' strong showing against the national champs was the fact that this same team could only muster a 1-8-1 record the previous season, thus making the 1967 Big Ten Champions a true "rags to roses" story. Pont earned unanimous national coach of the year honors that season and was selected as head coach of the East team in the 1968 Coaches' All-American game. Pont's jersey is retired at Miami (Ohio) and in 1969 he was one of six charter members inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

LEE CORSO • 1973-1982

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 28-52-2

Lee Corso took over as head football coach in 1973 after leading the Louisville Cardinals to two Missouri Valley Conference titles in four seasons. At IU, he led the Hoosiers to two winning seasons and a 1979 Holiday Bowl victory over previously unbeaten Brigham Young. Indiana's victory over the Cougars propelled Corso's team to 16th in the UPI poll, the Hoosiers' first top-20 ranking since 1967. While at Indiana, Corso was active with the American Football Coaches Association. He also served on the Ethics Committee, the Rules Committee and the NCAA Public Relations Seminar. During his tenure, he coached in the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. Corso is currently employed by ESPN, where he works as a studio analyst on College Gameday.

SAM WYCHE • 1983

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 3-8
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 2-7

Sam Wyche was Indiana's head football coach for only one season prior to leaving for the National Football League. An assistant coach on Bill Walsh's San Francisco 49ers staff that won the Super Bowl following the 1981 season, Wyche was named IU head coach in 1983 and guided the Hoosiers to a 3-8 mark that year. He then left Indiana to become the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals. He led that squad to the 1988 AFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth against the 49ers. Wyche coached the Bengals for eight seasons before becoming the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. He also coached the Bucs for five seasons, worked as a color commentator on NFL broadcasts and served as the Buffalo Bills' quarterbacks coordinator.

BILL MALLORY • 1984-1996

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 39-65-1

Bill Mallory served 13 years at the helm of the Hoosiers and compiled a record of 69-77-3. Before joining Indiana in 1984, Mallory coached three other schools to national prominence. While compiling a 165-121-4 (.576) career record at Miami (Ohio), Colorado, Northern Illinois and Indiana, Mallory became one of only seven coaches ever to guide three different programs to top-20 finishes in the national polls. In 1987, Mallory became the first Big Ten coach to be awarded back-to-back coach of the year honors. That year, he led the Hoosiers to an 8-4 record, a second-place finish in the Big Ten, and a Peach Bowl appearance. Mallory led the Hoosiers to six bowl games, including victories in the 1988 Liberty Bowl and the 1991 Copper Bowl. He also led IU to a top-20 ranking in 1988 and finished his career as IU's all-time winningest football coach with 69 wins.

CAM CAMERON • 1997-2001

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 12-28

Cam Cameron led the Hoosiers for five seasons and compiled a record of 18-37. He was the second Indiana alum (A.B. Woodford, 1887) to take over at the helm of the IU football program. Cameron played both football and basketball for Indiana in the early 1980s. Prior to joining the Indiana coaching ranks, he served as an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins in the NFL. Cameron brought an explosive offense to Memorial Stadium and a new look to Hoosier football. Indiana took the field with a new oval IU logo. Indiana averaged 23.6 points per game under Cameron's guidance. The Hoosiers enjoyed success as well in the classroom, as IU was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its exemplary football graduation rates in each of Cameron's final four seasons.

GERRY DINARDO • 2002-2004

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 3-21

In his first season with the Hoosiers, Gerry Dinardo led Indiana to a 3-9 record and a 1-7 mark in the Big Ten, including a 3-3 mark at Memorial Stadium. Among those three wins was a come-from-behind, 32-29, upset of No. 23 Wisconsin. The Hoosiers trailed by 19 points in the third quarter before scoring the final 22 points of the game for the victory. During 2004, the Hoosiers had wins over No. 24 Oregon (30-24) and No. 23 Minnesota (30-21). DiNardo finished his IU career with an 8-27 overall record.

TERRY HOEPPNER • 2005-2006

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 9-14
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 4-12

Terry Hoeppner was head coach of the Hoosiers for two years before passing away following a lengthy battle with brain cancer. He will always be remembered as one of the most influential coaches in school history. In just his second season at the helm of the Hoosier program, Hoeppner brought the Hoosiers on the brink of a bowl appearance in 2006. He led the youngest team in the Big Ten (49 true or redshirt freshmen and 72 underclassmen overall), to five victories - its most since the 2001 campaign - and restored an enthusiasm in IU football. The 2006 Hoosiers picked up three Big Ten wins for the first time since 2001, including a 31-28 win over No. 13 (Coaches) Iowa. Earning its final conference victory of the season, the Hoosiers dominated Michigan State, 46-21, on Homecoming to bring the Old Brass Spittoon back to Bloomington for the first time since 2001. Hoeppner made an immediate impact in his first year at the helm of the Hoosier program. Coach Hep rejuvenated an IU fan base that enjoyed a 39-percent increase in per-game attendance, a 46-percent increase in overall season ticket sales and a 110-percent increase in student season ticket sales.

BILL LYNCH • 2007-2010

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 19-30
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Bill Lynch served at the helm of the Indiana football program from 2007-10. Lynch led the Hoosiers to a 7-6 record and a trip to the Insight Bowl in his first season. He became the only head coach in Hoosier history to guide a team to a bowl game in his debut season. Lynch led Indiana to its most wins since 1993, its first bowl appearance since that same season, and its first Old Oaken Bucket victory since 2001. The team's seven victories were the second most for a first-year Indiana head coach, behind only James M. Sheldon, who went 8-1-1 in 1905. IU boasted three All-Americans, three second-round NFL Draft picks, seven overall NFL Draft picks, 10 All-Big Ten selections, one Academic All-American and 74 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in his four seasons. Lynch also went 2-2 in four Old Oaken Bucket games.

KEVIN WILSON • 2011-

CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 10-26
BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 5-19

Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010. IU has improved its win total in each of his three years and posted its most wins in back-to-back Big Ten seasons (2012-13) since 2006-07. During his tenure, the offense has set 22 school records, including points, total yardage and passing yardage in a single season. The 2013 Hoosiers were one of six teams in the nation to rank in the top 30 in scoring, total, passing and rushing offense. One year after boasting nine All-Big Ten honorees, IU produced seven more in 2013. The 16 honorees mark the most for Indiana in a two-year span since 2000 (6) and 2001 (12). Cody Latimer (second round) and Ted Bolser (seventh) were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

MICHAEL A. McROBBIE - Indiana University's 18th President

Michael A. McRobbie became the 18th president of Indiana University on July 1, 2007. IU is one of the largest university systems in the U.S. with eight campuses, a total budget of around $3 billion, and more than 7,000 faculty, 11,000 staff, and 110,000 students.

McRobbie joined IU in 1997 as vice president for information technology and chief information officer, and was appointed vice president for research in 2003. He was named interim provost and vice president for academic affairs for IU's Bloomington campus in 2006, and became president the following year.

As president, McRobbie has refocused IU around six Principles of Excellence — an excellent education, world-class research and scholarship, an outstanding faculty, enhanced international engagement, excellence in health sciences, and in engagement. Supporting these core principles is an essential framework of excellence in the four areas of advancement, infrastructure and facilities, information technology, and administration.

Under McRobbie's leadership, IU has seen a major expansion in the size and quality of IU's student body, a record level of expenditure, a billion dollar expansion of IU's facilities, and the completion of the $1.1 billion "Matching the Promise" endowment campaign at IU Bloomington and the $1.39 billion "IMPACT" campaign at its Indianapolis campus. These are the first two phases of a $5 billion campaign to be completed in IU's bicentennial year of 2020.

In addition to his duties as president, McRobbie serves on several outside committees and organizations. He is presently the chair of the Board of Directors of Internet2 and chair of the Board of Directors of the Digital Preservation Network. He is also a member and former chair of the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, and a member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board, and a member and former chair of University Research Associates, which is responsible for Fermi Lab.

McRobbie is a member of the board of directors of the Indiana University Health system — one of the largest and most highly regarded hospital systems in the U.S. — and the OneAmerica insurance company, based in Indianapolis.

McRobbie also holds faculty appointments in computer science, philosophy, cognitive science, informatics, library and information science, and computer technology, and has been an active researcher in information technology and logic over his career. He has been the principal investigator on several major grants, has published a number of books, many articles, and has served on numerous editorial boards and conference committees. A native of Australia, McRobbie received a Ph.D. from the Australian National University in 1979, and has honorary doctorates from the University of Queensland (2007), Sung Kyun Kwan University in Korea (2008), the Australia National University (2010) and the South East European University in Macedonia (2011), which IU helped found. In 2013, Thailand's National Institute for Development Administration awarded him its Prince Naradhip Bongsprabandha Plaque for services to international education.

He was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2012 and is an honorary fellow of the Australian Academy of Humanities. In 2007, he was made a Sagamore of the Wabash, the highest honor the State of Indiana can bestow on a private individual. And, in 2010, he was made an Officer of the Order of Australia, Australia's national honors system. In 2012, he was listed as one of America's 10 most popular university presidents.

On April 24, 2014, McRobbie received the Anti-Defamation League's "Man of Achievement Award," which recognizes individuals who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to community, justice and equal opportunity for all.

COMPLIANCE

Indiana University is extremely proud of the performance of its athletics teams both in competition and in the classroom. While our student-athletes are extremely talented, they would not reach their full potential without the encouragement and support that Hoosier fans bring to every event. We thank you for your commitment to our programs. Please be aware that many fans may meet the NCAA's definition of a representative of IU's athletics interests (commonly known as a "booster"). Much like our university personnel and student-athletes, boosters must also comply with various NCAA guidelines.

Although the NCAA rulebook is complex, everyone is expected to follow NCAA Bylaws and ask questions when unsure about the application of the rules. Any violation, no matter its size or scope, could affect a student-athlete's eligibility or Indiana University's status with the NCAA. Please help the university avoid these kinds of situations as you support our Hoosier sports programs.

While being a booster has certain privileges, these privileges do not extend to those duties specifically reserved for athletics personnel. ALL recruiting matters should be left to Indiana coaching staffs, and boosters MUST refrain from contacting any potential IU recruits, or their families, coaches or other associated individuals in regards to the prospect's future collegiate enrollment. This includes contacting prospects through the internet or via social networking sites. We encourage you instead to contact the Indiana Athletics Department, at (812) 855-1966, if you wish to recommend an individual whom you believe could contribute to our fine athletics tradition.

Recent violations at several Division I schools have forced another issue into the spotlight: benefits provided to student-athletes that are not available to the general student body. NCAA rules prohibit student-athletes from receiving any free or discounted products or services that are not otherwise available to all other IU students. Sometimes these "extra benefits" are hard to resist, but maintaining eligibility under these rules requires that our student-athletes receive only those benefits that may otherwise be provided to a normal college student, or through our athletic department as a part of their athletic participation. Please assist us in maintaining our commitment to integrity and compliance by not offering any specials, discounts or free items or services to the IU student-athletes – or recruits.

The NCAA and Indiana University take the rules pertaining to boosters and prospective student-athletes very seriously. It does not matter where contact with a prospect occurs or what means of communication is used to reach out to a prospect for recruiting purposes; it could become a rules violation in any scenario. Any improper contact with a prospect prior to that time or any offer or inducement provided to a prospect or their family is a violation of NCAA regulations and could lead to negative consequences for both Indiana and that prospective student-athlete.

The Athletics Department would like to thank you for supporting our student-athletes. Much of our success is due to you, our friends and fans. If you have any questions about the regulations applying to boosters, feel free to contact any member of the compliance office. Thanks for complying with the NCAA rules, and GO HOOSIERS!

As members of the media assigned to cover Indiana University Athletics, the IU Compliance Office invites you to review a few topics that apply to you as a media member and to our student-athletes as they compete and learn here on the Bloomington campus.

While many friends of the program remain interested in the growth of our programs and recruiting efforts of our coaching staffs, NCAA rules prohibit any member of the IU athletics staff from commenting publicly about any prospective student-athletes being recruited by our institution, other than to confirm the prospect's recruitment. Indiana is prohibited from publicizing any visits made to our campus by prospects, or otherwise making those prospects available for interviews or media comments while they are meeting with our coaches and touring campus. These rules are meant to protect the privacy of these prospects and their families as they go through the recruiting process and to provide the freedom necessary for these recruits to make their college choices without undue influence from external entities. Please respect these rules and the prospect's need for privacy during their recruitment – and our need to stay compliant with NCAA publicity of recruiting rules!

Additionally, as we prepare our student-athletes for life following their collegiate career, many will test the waters in professional sports and make agreements with agents. Under Indiana state law, these agents must register with the Indiana State Attorney General prior to making any contacts with current student-athletes. Additionally, our compliance office requires all agents to register internally, in order to better approve and guide their communications with our outgoing student-athletes. Our student-athletes may not make any verbal or written agreement with an agent if they wish to preserve their collegiate eligibility, so we work to protect those interests while they remain at IU. Please help us be vigilant in our efforts by not involving yourselves in this process, and helping us identify agent activity on our campus when you know of, or see it occurring.

As always, we thank you for your commitment to our programs and to helping us make each student-athlete's experience at IU the best it can possibly be. Your support of our compliance office and these specific rules is a large part of ensuring that IU carries on its tradition of excellence both on and off the playing field. If you have any questions about these, or other, NCAA rules please contact a member of our compliance staff or visit our website at: www.iuhoosiers.com/compliance.

PLEASE HELP IU COMPLY WITH NCAA RULES BY NOT DISTRIBUTING OR REDISTRIBUTING THIS MEDIA GUIDE TO PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES, THEIR FAMILIES OR THEIR COACHES.

IU RADIO NETWORK

Indiana University's football program receives some of the most extensive media coverage in the country. Learfield Communications holds the exclusive rights as IU's official radio outlet.

For 42 years, Learfield has excelled in administering the multimedia rights for a host of reputable colleges and universities. It provides exclusive sports programming to close to 1,200 radio stations throughout the country. ## DON FISCHER

This marks the 42nd year that Don Fischer has been the radio play-by-play "voice" of Indiana University football and men's basketball games. The past 27 years, Fischer has worked as an independent contractor and is currently serving the Indiana University Radio Network owned by Learfield Communications out of Jefferson City, Mo.

In addition to broadcasting the games, Fischer hosts the weekly coaches radio talk shows for both the football and men's basketball programs and has a daily show, Monday through Friday, from September through March. The daily show is called "IU Sports Today" and is syndicated throughout the state of Indiana. Fischer also offers stations a weekly talk show about IU football and basketball that airs in several markets around the state during the school year.

Fischer does freelance sports casting, which for the past 20 years has included being the television voice of the Indianapolis Colts.

During his 41 years with IU, Fischer has been named Indiana Sportscaster of the Year 28 times by two different organizations. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association has awarded him 24 times, including the last five seasons, while the Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association has named him its honoree four times.

Fischer also has been named an Honorary "I" Man. In addition, the City of Indianapolis, and the State of Indiana have each honored Fischer with a special "Recognition Day" for his service and abilities as the play-by-play broadcaster for IU.

He has broadcast more than 1,600 Indiana University games - a total that includes seven bowl games, four NCAA basketball championship games and two N.I.T. championship games.

From 1973 through 1987, he worked for ABC Radio, Canada's CBC and several additional major market radio stations, including WIRE in Indianapolis, as their source for reports during the month of May coverage of the Indianapolis 500. During that period, Fischer also served WIRE and Network Indiana, a statewide news network, as their sports director.

A native of Rochelle, Ill., Fischer has been in the radio business for 46 years. His previous broadcast experience includes stops in Butte, Mont.; Ottawa, Ill.; Springfield, Ill.; and Terre Haute, Ind.

Fischer has four sons and 10 grandchildren. Don and his wife, Susy, reside in Greenwood, Ind.

BUCK SUHR

Buck Suhr rejoined the Indiana University Football Radio Network as color commentator in 2010. Suhr, who served in the same capacity from 1997-2001, reunited with the Voice of the Hoosiers, Don Fischer, and Joe Smith (pre-game, post-game and halftime).

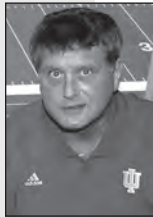

Suhr was a member of the Hoosier football program for 18 years as a running backs coach and administrator. He spent 12 seasons (1984-95) as running backs coach under IU's all-time winningest coach, Bill Mallory.

After his stint as a coach, where he tutored All-America selections Anthony Thompson and Vaughn Dunbar, Suhr was named administrative assistant to the head coach and athletic director from 1996-2001.

As running backs coach, Suhr helped direct one of the nation's most productive rushing attacks. From 1984-95, the Hoosiers had three different 1,000-yard rushers who topped that mark on six separate occasions. In 1988, the IU offense rushed for a school-record 2,963 yards.

During his tenure, Suhr coached Thompson, the 1989 Heisman Trophy runner-up, along with Dunbar and Alex Smith, the 1994 UPI National Freshman of the Year.

Suhr and his wife, Jane, are the parents of one son, Errek, and the deceased Jenny Suhr. Errek played in 74 games and earned four letters as a guard for the IU men's basketball program from 2004-07.

JOE SMITH

Joe Smith is in his 32nd year with the IU Radio Network. He has handled pre-game, halftime, and post-game duties for Indiana football and men's basketball since 1983.

Smith, the sports director of WGCL-AM 1370 in Bloomington, is in his 46th year of radio broadcasting in Bloomington. He began his broadcasting career in 1969 at WAIK Radio in Galesburg, Ill. From 1973-89, Joe worked on "RFD-4 Agri-Business Show" on WTTV-4 with the late Bob Cook. In 1998, Smith was named

In June 2004, Smith received the J.W. Bill Orwig Medal that goes to non-alumni for distinguished service to the University.

Joe has two children, both of whom are Indiana University graduates. Jeff, currently resides in Brownsburg, Ind., with his wife, Kristen, and their sons, Jayden and Kaleb. Joe's daughter, Jamie, and her husband, Eric, currently reside in Bloomington with their son, Ethan and daughter, Emerson.
